Issue 12 - Dec 2020 / Jan 2021

A Newsletter for the Veterans in Chelan, Douglas, Grant, and Okanogan Counties

Wrapping Up 2020 & Looking Ahead

This year has been a very strange year for all of us. Twelve months ago, no one would have suspected we'd be preparing for the holidays having seen all that we've seen: a global pandemic that some still don't believe is real, civil unrest met only with the thing which was being protested, unemployment and food insecurity on a scale we haven't seen in nearly a century, an election that permanently divided families, and a massive shift in how we as a society do business every day.

Yet here we are: hosting meetings and conferences virtually (reducing cost and stress from travel), ordering online from our favorite local shops with curbside pickup, having the difficult conversations with friends and family about systemic issues and how to change them, and looking forward to a brighter tomorrow as we work together instead of letting our fierce independence isolate us.

As I've said before, Veterans know how to adapt - it comes from our military training. I have begun to adapt NCW Veterans Info, and I hope you all continue to adapt in your own lives as we move into the new year, because that's the best way to ensure our collective success.

New Look for the Website

As promised, I completed a relaunch of the website www.ncwveterans.info in early November. Thank you for your patience as I implemented this new look, new directory and calendar system, and started posting more blogs. If you haven't yet, please take a look and check it out.

And check back often, as there's always something new being posted. Also, if you represent one of the resources in the directory, please review the listings for accuracy and completeness. Any additional information or photos can be sent via email to whatsnew@ncwveterans.info.

Reminders Regarding COVID-19

This virus isn't going away (it's actually getting worse during this time of year), and there's no quick fix waiting in the wings. So we need to adopt a few new "normal" habits:

- Don't stand or sit so close, especially in groups
- Wear a mask when around others
- Keep your hands to yourself, and wash/sanitize them often

Science tells us the virus moves on the droplets in our breath, so prolonged talking and breathing in close proximity to others is a common transmission method. Give each other space and wear a face covering to keep your droplets to yourself when possible.

The more we can adhere to these best practices now, the sooner we can open back up. There is no economy if half of us are sick and dying, after all.

STAY BACK, JACK!

SOCIAL DISTANCING IS A THING NOW.

SPEAK LOUDER. USE AIR FIST BUMPS.

If you want the most reliable information, always check in with the most reliable sources:

Wreaths Across America

"Each December on National Wreaths Across America Day, the mission to Remember, Honor and Teach is carried out by coordinating wreath-laying ceremonies at Arlington National Cemetery, as well as at more than 2,100 additional locations in all 50 U.S. states, at sea and abroad."

Generally in October, local groups start requesting funds for wreath sponsorship. Then in December, when the wreaths are delivered to their location, volunteers place a wreath on the headstones of Veterans in the local cemeteries. There is often a short ceremony as well. Check with local scout troops or similar organizations for information about an event near you.

Veterans Day Around the Region

In North Central Washington, we love our Veterans so much that Veterans Day events typically span nearly a week, from assemblies at the area schools, to parades, to luncheons, and more. With 2020 being the way that it is, a lot of these events were canceled, however I did hear that some continued with safe modifications. I did not receive a lot of photos or stories, but what I did hear about was posted on the website at www.ncwveterans.info/news - if you have a story or any photos to share, please send it my way and I'll get it posted as well.

Manson American Legion Post 108 and Chelan VFW Post 6853 came together to present the colors on Nov 8th at North Shore Bible Church's Veterans Day event.

While our office remains closed to walk-ins, we are still very much open to receiving calls, emails, and faxes. We are definitely still here to help. With VA healthcare moving over to the new CERNER program, there was a lot of errors, in medications, appointments, etc, but we are working on getting the call center to be more accountable to answering the phones.

As far as disability, claims continue to be evaluated and granted. Blue Water Navy veterans who were within 12 nautical miles of the Vietnam coast and have Agent Orange Presumptive Conditions are encouraged to file a claim.

Also, our Vet Corps Navigators are hosting a weekly Zoom chat at 2pm on Tues & Thurs each week, to ask questions or just chat.

We continue to work on VA cases and are looking forward to the new metrics coming out soon. The most recent metrics show me on course to meet the 80% acceptance rate.

Please welcome Jose Solis as our Vet Corps Navigator. He is working toward helping the DoCo VSO Office become more visible in the community. His ideas include possible radio ads and hosting of COVID-safe events.

Thanks to Tony Sandoval of Chelan County VSO and Pete O'Cain from the Wenatchee World for stepping out to remind Veterans and Veteran Families to plan ahead as much as they can. I've already gotten three new cases to work on thanks to this timely reminder.

No update at this time.

What's Up Vet!

Our Vet Corps Navigators have come up with a COVID-safe way to stay in touch and be available to answer questions about veteran benefits: weekly Zoom chats.

Join our Navigators Jose Solis, Trent Mortensen, Mark Harle, and Joe Garek every Tuesday and Thursday between 2-4pm via zoom. No registration required.

Click <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/86358564972> or visit Zoom to Join and enter Meeting ID 863 5856 4972

These chats are open to all veterans, spouses, dependents, or anyone who might have questions for a veteran. The Navigators will be answering questions about resources, benefits, going back to school, or any other info that may come up.

Civil Air Patrol

SCREAMING OCTOPUS

Holiday Donation Drive

Screaming Octopus, a multi-modal massage clinic serving the Wenatchee Valley, has teamed up with new veteran-focused nonprofit Tour of Duty Foundation to host a holiday donation drive benefiting area veterans. Chantz and Cherise are accepting donations of non-perishable food items, grocery store gift cards, new socks and gloves, and gently used items like coats and boots. There is a tote outside the East Wenatchee location (101 Eastmont Ave, Suite B) to accept donations, which will then be sanitized and re-bagged for distribution.

Donations accepted until 16 December.

As an incentive, Cherise and Chantz are also offering discounts in their treatments when you bring in donations:

- $1 off per can (up to 10 cans) for massage treatments
- $1 off per can (up to 10 cans) on gift certificates for Cherise's services

In addition, Cherise will be donating 5% of all online sales during the donation drive. This includes gift certificates and pre-paid sessions. Buy your massages in bulk and know that part of the cost will go to a good cause this holiday season.

Editor's Notes

I know I say it a lot, especially in this issue, but I really do depend on the input from you, the veterans in the community, to keep me in the loop. I can't be everywhere, so I need to hear from the "boots on the ground". To those who regularly send me stories to share, Thank you. I hope others are seeing your featured stories and will send me a message to brag a little when something interesting happens in their neck of the woods. I know bragging doesn't come easy, but I'm asking you to at least try.

Input could be newspaper articles, recap of recent events of any kind, or even just notice of awards given out in your specific organization. Speaking of, I hear some American Legion posts recently selected a Legionnaire of the Year – I would love to compile and share the full list of all awardees from across our region. *hint*hint*

On another note, this issue (#12) marks 2 full years that I've been publishing this newsletter. It was always aimed at bringing more visitors to the website, but I'm not sure it still meets that goal without being distributed in print, so I will be revisiting that in the new year. Feedback welcomed.

Stay warm, safe, and healthy this winter.

~Connie
